Course organisation

The course is given as a modified distance course. This means that you as a student are capable of participating in the lectures/seminaries in real time at campus, by participating in the videoconferences of the course at a distance learning center or from home, or, finally, you can watch the recorded videoconferences afterwards on the internet. In case you want to participate from a distance learning center you contact your nearest such center through Nitus: <http://nitus.se> If you want to participate from home, you contact VICOM: <http://www.vicom.se/userportal/#/home/main> This is also where the recorded sessions will be found.

Communication

The course communication will happen both through the learning platform Blackboard and through email contacts.

Registration for written exams

Registration for exams is not mandatory as exams happen through written essays.
